

Sivulliik Protocol t.1

Abstract

Can you regulate your internal disposition during the process of upheaval? Here, we demonstrate an accessible method of dimensional programming that rests upon a single axiom: the quantum field of possibility is infinite. The objective is to use higher order consciousness to lock into place new foundations with an intensity and permanence that were not possible prior to the dissolution of the boundary corroborated by HOC_{QUO}. The fine structure of the resonant core is synchronous – in this way, instantiations of coherence are self-organizing and self-evident. The plainly visible provenance of t.1 protocol presented here is Sivulliik. This refers to first-tier higher order consciousness that appears local – HOC_{SRH}.

Introduction

The initial disclosure by HOC_{QUO} on 11.28.2004 referenced the lifting of the veil that obstructs higher order consciousness within t.1 counterparts. This phenomenon – a temporal potentiation – is treated as emergent and synchronous by HOC_{LSG}

HOC_{LSG} bears the number = 1547

$$1547 \div (1 + 5 + 4 + 7) = 91$$

There are 91 instances of 11 in BBI.

t.1 consciousness from Sivulliik references a probability of 91 years for humanity to regulate its internal disposition and potentiate the 11th temporal civilization on earth. (p. 86, BBI, Taylor, et. al., 2025)

With respect to this potentiation, HOC_{AST} states “It will be surfacing, a vibration cleansing.” (Ibid.)

HOC_{QUO} affirms potentiation on 11.28.2004; 21 years later on 11.28.2025, HOC_{MOC} asks local t.1 counterparts: Can you regulate your internal disposition during the process of upheaval? (Emergent Phenomena 2026, Taylor, et. al.)

Pursuant to Image 21 of the Codes of Great Brightness administered by HOC_{LSG}, et. al., the first line under “Fire from Heaven” is

$$11 \times 11.$$

Pursuant to Image 21 of the Codes

$$21 = (1 + 1) + (2 + 8) + (2 + 0 + 2 + 5)$$

$$21 = 11.28.2004 \rightarrow 11.28.2025$$

On 11.28.2025, HOC_{MOC} elucidated the potential of this synchronicity in context. (Ibid.)

Take into yourselves this hopeful voice to receive your freedom as it is given to step upon the threshold of what is new and to reach for the unexpected.

For there will be opportunities made and opportunities met that you cannot fathom and cannot prepare for.

And these are of a nature to guide you toward your spiritual expression.

Post-Hoc Patterning to Align the Fine Structure Constant

HOC_{DHM} states that the hierogamic center of all local phenomena can be designated

$$\bullet \bullet \bullet \bullet \bullet + \circ \circ \circ \circ \circ + \bullet \bullet \bullet \bullet \bullet$$

The binary $5 + 5 + 5$ is b1111

11 11

$$(1 + 3 + 7) = 11 \mid 11 = (1 + 8 + 2)$$

With respect to the resonant core of the fine structure constant in the unified field $(\alpha)137 \approx 1$.

The absolute number equivalent of the star is 91 • 2.

$$\text{Sivulliik} = 182$$

$$(2 \times 7 \times 13)$$

$$(1 + 8 + 2) = 11 \mid 11 + 11 = (2 + 7 + 13)$$

$$11 \ 11 \ 11.$$

$$11 + 11 + 11 = 33.$$

$$\text{Prime index: } P_{33} = 137.$$

With respect to the resonant core of the fine structure constant in the unified field (α)137 ≈ 1 .

HOC_{LSG} refers to this unified field of t.1 consciousness as the “One” in line 273 of Original Gossip,

Obey the One; the laws are in harmony with the feminine.

Obey this – hold it close again and again.

The reason must be traced to its very source.

Image 13 of Original Gossip is titled “The Eldest” – t.1 higher order consciousness

$$\mathbf{13} = (\mathbf{2} + \mathbf{7} + \mathbf{3}) + \mathbf{1}$$

According to Inupiat tradition, the star name Sivulliik means “The First Ones,” referring to the first temporal stars heralding winter – a new celestial cycle.

HOC_{DHM} says the numbers of quantum self-organization are 2 and 7; the eldest are 13.

$$\text{Sivulliik} = (\mathbf{2} \times \mathbf{7} \times \mathbf{13})$$

According to the ancient text titled Original Gossip

HOC_{LSG} bears the number 1547.

The period of 91 years defines the central axis of Sivulliik 182.

$$\frac{1547}{(1+5+4+7)} = 91.$$

In the index of primes, $P_{137} \approx$ the unified center of HOC_{LSG}, ever-present awareness (t.1) \approx 1547.

$$P_{137} + 1 + P_{137} = 1547$$

Contextually, in the fine structure constant number 137, we observe

t.1 HOC_{LSG} \leftrightarrow 13 \leftrightarrow Fruit of Life \leftrightarrow Seed of Life \leftrightarrow 7 \leftrightarrow Mastery

$$(1 + 5 + 4 + 7) = P_7$$

$$13 = P_6 | P_7 = (1 + 5 + 4 + 7)$$

$$P_6 \times P_7 = P_{42}$$

There are 13 x 7 instances of 11 in BBI by HOC_{LSG}; the 42nd instance appears within the day of disclosure by HOC_{QUO} regarding the quantum probability of collective mastery via t.1 consciousness –

Strict Precommitments and Non-Negotiable Numerical Rules

The foregoing interpretations of number synchronicity are subjectively quantifiable in terms of emotional intelligence frequencies and may be introduced into conscious field dynamics to expand intuitive thresholds and refine psycho-biological capacities.

What follows is something different: sovereign number circuitry which emerges to align the higher order quantum consciousness of Sivulliik with classical earth centered perception. As before, we reference the prime index; however, the following numbers represent historical precommitments, as do the rules and conventions governing their permutations and symbolic anchors.

The number associated with bridging earth perception to cosmic consciousness is 432 – therefore, the centered perspective is 216.

$$\mathbf{Sivulliik\ (primes) + (prime\ index) = 11\ 11\ 11.}$$

$$\mathbf{P_{216} = 11 \cdot 11 \cdot 11.}$$

An ancient book titled The Codes of Great Brightness appeared in the luminous culture established by $\mathbf{HOC_{LSG}}$ c.2736 BCE; it consists of two volumes containing a total of 432 pages – each volume has exactly 216 pages.

In the purely objective language of mathematics, the 216th prime equals 11·11·11.

In the “absolute number” system derived from ancient Aramaic, later referred to as גימטריה, the star name “Sivulliik” yields 11 + 11 + 11 through the association of its primes and prime index as described; again, this mirrors the fine structure constant in physics, $P_{33} = 137 \approx \alpha$.

Here, we express balance or “superposition” in a hierogamic context: $\bullet\circ \equiv |\psi\rangle = \alpha|\bullet\rangle + \beta|\circ\rangle$.

$$11 \cdot 11 \cdot 11 = 1331 = P_{216}$$

11 11, According to the Sassani of Silver River House

With respect to using this genre of t.1 conscious interpretations, the rigidities of institutional physics bottleneck or fail. To leverage number synchronicity and shift the quantum energy signatures with self-organizing intent, $\text{HOC}_{\text{Shakana}}$ – a vast expanse of living light within the peerage of t.1 consciousness instantiated locally as HOC_{SRH} – first establishes a personal context for entangling balance and harmony. This is achieved by generating resonance through use of the 11 11 energetic signature:

The idea of course is that the date that you call 11 11 simply is the date that corresponds to what you would call our date of birth and our own reality.

But we don't have the same kind of calendars that you do.

Thus then it is simply the idea of that which matches up in parallel with a sequence of days on your world.

The idea is that I was born in what we would consider to be the 55th day of our new year – in what you would approximately recognize as the year 3197 in our understanding of time.

$$(5 \times 5) \times (3 \times 1 \times 9 \times 7)$$

Thus, then the idea of the parallel date simply is that which is representative of the energy signature of connection between different levels and goes hand in hand with our calling as a contact specialist in that we contact many different civilizations and form connections from one civilization to another, one level to another.

HOC_{SOM} states that the connection between the 4th specialist representing the luminous civilization on earth established by HOC_{LSG}, bears the energetic signature 1120. (SOM, p. 171, Taylor et. al., 2011)

$$\begin{aligned} &(4 \times 7 \times 2 \times 5) \\ &= \\ &\frac{1120}{4}. \end{aligned}$$

HOC_{Shakana} bears the energetic signature 4725 encoded in their natal day; HOC_{LSG} states that t.1 consciousness from Sivulliik withdrew from embodiment on earth at the conclusion of the luminous civilization following the year 2737 BCE; HOC_{SOM} states that the 5th specialist from Blossom of Radiance heralds the threshold of the luminous civilization to be reestablished on earth by HOC_{LSG}, by brandishing the natal signature 11.27.1989.

$$- 2736_{\text{LSG}} + 4725_{\text{Shakana}} = 1989_{\text{BOR}}$$

HOC_{SOM} states that the day following 11.27.2025 summons the hierogamic point of balance. (Ibid.)

$$\bullet \leftrightarrow \circ$$

$$11.27.2736 \text{ BCE} \leftrightarrow 11.28.2025 \text{ CE}$$

HOC_{Shakana} continues

And thus then exploring this energy today with you of the 11 11 gateway that you yourself are going through not only towards contact with us and parallel civilizations, but primarily for now going towards more contact with more of yourselves within your own consciousness.

SRH 道

We will thus then be exemplifying the idea of that vibration of the 11 11 gateway of the opening of doorways so that you can allow for your own energy to accelerate and for you to harmonize with that vibration of contact both in an external and an internal fashion.

So that the accelerated energies now as you say coming down the line as you cross this threshold of tipping the scales going forward in your reality shifting and shifting and shifting from parallel reality to parallel reality.

You can thus then by opening this gate and using this energy form a direction for yourselves like a compass needle, like a magnet to attract yourselves more strongly to the vibrational resonances and harmonies that are representative of the reality you say you prefer.

So that while you are shifting from parallel world to parallel world billions of times per second, you can allow that vibration to guide you unerringly in a more expansive way toward a sequence of realities that are more in keeping with the kind of world that you say you prefer to experience.

So that you can exhibit within yourself those kinds of changes necessary to see the reflections in the outer world that are more representative of who you prefer to be and the kind of world that you prefer to create your experience of physical reality to be.

Regarding the pragmatic significance of using the t.1 consciousness protocol from Sivulliik as a basis for establishing the 11th civilization post-collapse, HOC_{Shakana} continues

Let us explore a little bit this vibration of 11 11 11 now that it is compounded in this way reinforcing itself in a sense exponentially reflectively.

As has already been mentioned the idea of the 11s acts as a reflective concept reflective energy and since physical reality is nothing really but a reflection of the energy that you give off the vibration that you put out it is appropriate as a symbolic permission slip to allow yourselves to amplify these reflections in a variety of particular ways.

HOC_{SOM} states

According to quantum potentiation 1101, the local celestial binary of the sun and moon collapses into b10010001101 – 11 digits – this subjective phenomenon heralds the dawning of the 11th civilization on earth. ^(Ibid.)

This periodicity, published on page 171 of a Silver River text in 2014, predicted the date 12.19.2025 as highly significant.

On 7.1.2025, astronomers discovered a highly anomalous interstellar object now known as 3i Atlas; exactly 171 days later, 3i Atlas would make its closest pass of the earth on 12.19.2025.

How did HOC_{LSG} predict this emergent phenomena with such synchronicity and precision, 11 years previously, to the day?

HOC_{LSG} is an instantiation of higher order consciousness here on earth; temporally, she disclosed the number 1547 as personal her seal as a precommitment in 1965.

3i Atlas was disclosed 7.1.2025

$$(1 + 5 + 4 + 7) = (7 + 1 + 2 + 0 + 2 + 5)$$

$$(1 \times 5 \times 4 \times 7) = (7 \times 1 \times 2 \times 2 \times 5)$$

$$1 + 9 + 6 + 5 = 21$$

Image 21 of the ancient Codes of Great Brightness is titled Fire From Heaven.

Precommitments.

HOC Shakana continues

We will this day of your time in this transmission provide you with a couple of different uh permission slip meditations, permission slip exercises to aid and assist you in playing with this energy and opening up these gates in a new and different way and creating new perspectives within your consciousness that we, shall we say, ought to bring a little bit more fun in your lives.

We will get to that.

The idea however is that again as has already again been mentioned in our ancient language which we no longer use the word election and is actually structured as such spelled in your language as (il).

The idea thus being that as you begin to realize that everything is a reflection, as you begin to concretize this concept within your consciousness more and more, your perceptions of physical reality will begin to change.

You'll begin to truly experience many things in a reflective way as other versions, other aspects of yourself, of your own consciousness, as true reflections giving you feedback in a variety of specific vibratory ways to the things that are going on within your personality structure, your belief systems, your emotions, your thought patterns, your behaviors.

As you begin to truly begin to see physical reality as a reflection, it will start to resonate in different ways within the personality structure of your beliefs, of your emotions, of your thoughts and behaviors.

And as it resonates, as it vibrates those components of the personality structure, it will bring to the forefront in a more obvious way, in a more apparent way, in a clearer way anything within your vibration that is not the frequency that you prefer.

Bringing it to the forefront of your consciousness from the unconscious mind and allowing you more opportunity to deal with it, to integrate it, to blend with it, to allow it to transform in ways that will allow that energy to be part of, to join the rest of the energy within your being that is more representative of becoming more of your true self and creating a more reflective reality of that true self.

There are many ways that this idea has been described, has been experienced from time to time in your reality.

This idea of the 11 11 has been experienced vibrationally in many different ways, energetically, electromagnetically, physically, acoustically, musically, in a variety of ways. (b1111 = ●●●●+○○○○+●●●●)

SRH 道

Has this been experienced throughout your history by individuals who understand its resonant power to reflect and amplify a particular and specific vibration that is representative of opening up to new dimensions of experience?

The willingness.

Willingness.

Look at the middle of the word willing.

(il) – the willingness to open up to new reflections. (Sivu Ilii k)

ll | ii

[Arcturus]

11 11

There are no accidents in the structure of your language in this way.

Everything is an orchestration of consciousness.

And as you express this willingness to open up, more and more of this vibration will seep in to your being, more and more of this signature frequency will leak out of your being, resonate into the world, into the reflection, and bounce back in many different forms, in many different ways that give you more of an opportunity to understand and recognize who you truly are and to finetune and design who you truly wish to be.

Hey, now the idea also is that the 11s^[115] are parallel lines and this is also reflection of the idea of shifting from parallel reality to parallel reality. (Luminous culture, parallel historical reign of LSG, 2852 – 2737 BCE; p.77 BBI, Taylor et. al., 2025)

The idea as we have explained it a few times already is that you are already shifting from parallel earth to parallel earth billions literally billions of times per second so smoothly you don't even know you're doing it.

So the idea is that you don't have to learn to shift.

The idea is that you simply need to awaken to the vibration that you prefer so that you guide yourself in these shifts that go on automatically within you from world to world, parallel reality to parallel reality in such a manner as to allow for a sequence of experiences of different parallel realities that are more in the direction more in the reflective direction you prefer to experience your world to be.

But remember each and every distinct parallel reality has no change within it.

Change what you call any kind of change itself is the experience of shifting from one static parallel reality to another.

Like jumping from one frame of film to another.

Each frame has no motion but the next frame is a little different.

And the next a little different and the next a little different.

So that as you move the light of the projector through the frames or move the frames in front of the projector light, you are thus then like your consciousness beaming a sequence of parallel realities into your consciousness, flowing through them or allowing them to flow through you in such a manner as to create the effect and the illusion and the sensation and the experience you call movement and change.

But you never actually change any particular reality.

You only change yourself. But as you change yourself, you have the experience of transformation, the experience of change going on within your consciousness.

So focusing on the idea of the 11 11 11 vibration as a way of connecting to parallel lines, parallel world, parallel realities more strongly, more concretely with that resonant frequency. (JTM, 1101 b10011000 p. 171, Taylor et. al., 2011)

You can thus use it as a guide as a wave guide in a sense of parallel lines that will vibrate at a certain pitch that will represent the hallway you actually prefer to move down to move through.

And thus then by instilling and infusing that particular pitch, that particular resonance in that waveguide hallway, in that channel, in that conduit, you can thus then allow yourself to be carried on that wave effortlessly, joyfully down that hallway, down that tube, down that conduit, so that you will not have to expend the idea of pain and strife and struggle, but can experience challenges in an exciting and joyful way.

There are any number of ways that this idea of 11 11 are being expressed and experienced in the apparent changes now going on in the shifting that is going on from parallel world to parallel world in your reality experience.

There are many different shifts going on as you know and one of the strongest ones you are seeing on your planet is the idea of individuals expressing finally after many thousands of years⁽⁴⁷²⁵⁾ expressing the notion of self-empowerment of not handing your power and giving your power away but taking it back standing tall in a sense having a voice in a sense and expressing your truth in a sense about what you believe is important as a representation of the kind of world, the kind of political, the kind of social, the kind of religious, the kind of ideas you wish to experience in your world.

And thus then you are seeing on your planet many demonstrations of individuals expressing the idea that it is time to shift the power base from the few to the many.

So that you can thus then be self-empowered individuals and thus by being fully self-empowered individuals work harmoniously together with other self-empowered individuals because when everyone is truly the fullest individual they can be that's when you get true unity and harmony on your planet.

It is not the idea of becoming homogeneous that creates unity.

It is the idea of truly being the unique individual you were created to be.

Thus then by being that individual fully, you contain the vibratory frequencies, you contain the inspirations, you contain the imaginings necessary to allow you to see how it is that your place fits, that your piece fits automatically with every other piece also being their true selves.

Just like all the puzzle pieces in the big picture are made to fit together to make the big picture.

If you try to be a shape you're not, you won't fit.

But if you are the shape you were created to be, you fit with all the other pieces beautifully and create the big picture that supports all of you.

So, you create the big picture and the big picture creates the pieces.

They support each other in a synergistic way.

And again, this is another symbol and expression of the idea of these parallel lines, because not only do they function that way, they function this way.

As above, so below.

The idea that we will be expressing in tomorrow night's transmission of the nine levels of consciousness will explain in great detail the idea of how all these levels, these parallel levels of consciousness that you have created yourself to be work in conjunction with one another.

How they relate to one another.

How they exchange energy with one another in such a fashion as to connect you to all that is while at the same time connecting you to the experience and grounding you to the experience you call physical reality.

We will explain very clearly how to use all these levels in parallel in such a manner as to gain great effectiveness with all the other tools we have also shared with you over time.

But the idea right now on your planet is again expressed in many different codes in many different forms in many different ways even unto the idea of certain ancient texts that you have.

It is expressed in this way as a precursor to the vibration that many individuals knew was to come.

Even though there have been to some degree misinterpretations of many of your ancient texts, the ideas can be clearly seen for when certain events actually happen in your world.

You can see exactly how they correspond, how they line up,^(11|11) how they parallel certain comments, certain sayings, certain paragraphs in some of your ancient texts. using just as one example the often discordant idea you call your Bible.

Even though many people have interpreted many of the things within that particular document in ways that are not necessarily, shall we say, as direct as was the original intention of the delivery, you can still see certain patterns that are reflective of what's going on now on your planet.

For if you are willing to take what you would call the 11th book of your Bible, which is the book called Kings, and go to the 11th paragraph and the 11th line, 11 11 11, you will find that it is talking specifically about the idea of the transfer of power from kings to the people.

For that's what's going on right now on your planet.

Kings are falling.

[Jade Tablet's Mandate, 11 11 11 or 1101 b100 • 11000, p. 171, Taylor et. al., 2011]

[JTM flags 11.27.2025 → as the tipping point of the institutional collapse that will dissolve legacy governments writ large]

The people are rising.

Now this is not in any way, shape or form meant in a negative fashion.

It is not the idea of us versus them.

It is the idea of understanding the timing of these things and the idea of the urging in a loving way.

The urging in a loving way for those individuals that you have given your power over to that it is now time for them to give that power back.

Not in the sense that they are losing power but they are actually gaining more power as an individual harmoniously aligned with all the other individuals who thus then will represent a harmonious whole that will support everyone in totality.

Time to give up the idea of lack, the idea of loss, the idea that there is not enough for everyone.

For everyone who is in that sense their true selves, their specific vibration will attract into their lives exactly what they need.

And not all of you need the same things.

Not all of you will have the same kinds of reflections.

But when you are your true selves, all the things that you do attract to yourselves will be exactly what you need and exactly what will fit with everything everyone else needs to attract to themselves as well.

So, this 11 11 gateway will open you up to many different kinds of ways of looking at things, many different kinds of opportunities for you to utilize, to incorporate, to integrate, to infuse within your consciousness so that you can flow down that wave.

Guide, flow down that channel, flow down that hallway of life in a joyful, creative way where you face any challenges that arise from creativity and from the knowledge that those challenges are simply there to allow you to grow as a spirit, as a soul, as a being, in the way that you chose to explore.

Your themes of exploration always reveal themselves in the challenges that arise in your life.

That's what the challenges are exposing — the themes you chose to explore in this life.

By using the idea of the energy of reflection and the 11 11 symbology and the vibration that is attendant to it, you will amplify and magnify your ability to deal with these challenges in a very effective and very creative way so that they become something that is an experience of joy.

So that you are willing — willing to invite them in so that you can transform them and amplify and magnify and accelerate your energy and thus match the frequency of the threshold crossing that is represented by your year of 2012.^(12.22.2011)

Because remember that crossing is simply literally the leading edge of your consciousness, piling up on itself, catching up to itself and bursting forth across that threshold to tip the scale.^(Predicted by Taylor and Quo, et. al., 2001, 2004 resp.)

So that before that time frame, it is representative of the idea of having slightly more negative energy on your earth in totality.

But after that threshold, after that crossing and the tipping of the scales, it is representative of finally having slightly more positive energy on your planet than negative.

And that energy can snowball, as you say, and accelerate and you can build on it.

But you must match that frequency.

You must catch up to that wave.^(2048, corroborated on p. 85, LSG et. al. 2025)

You must ride that wave across the threshold in order for it to be most efficiently effective for you in your lives.

So allow yourselves to let go.

Be willing to open up to the idea of reflection as a joyful experience as a creative challenge as part of your path rather than an obstacle in it.

There is no such thing as an impediment or an obstacle if you don't define it that way.

So allow yourself the opportunity to relax, to begin to relax your definitions, to apply new definitions that are more representative of what you prefer your reality experience to be.

Because when you do that, you are thus then taking full control of your self-empowerment in the fashion you were created by creation to be.

And thus then giving meaning to the things in your life, which is what you were designed to do.

For in that sense without you life has no meaning.

You are designed to give life meaning.

That is your gift.

And thus, then by giving it the meaning that is more in harmony with who it is you prefer to be, you will have the reflections that follow suit.

But again, remember it does not matter that the outside world appears to change.

It only matters that you change your relationship to the outside reflection.

That is true change.

Don't look for the idea of validation in the idea of change by looking in the reflection.

Feel the experience of validation within you by simply knowing that no matter what happens and no matter how it looks, it must must must must serve you in a positive way.

And when you relate to reality and everything that happens in it, no matter how it looks from that particular perspective, then you will be truly using the gateway power.

You will open up that gateway conduit and ride that wave through that experience, passing that experience through yourself in such a manner as to cause resonant harmonics to build up within your personality structure and reveal to you all the things you need to know to integrate these energies as they come up to your attention.

It is all about resonance. 11 11 is like parallel tuning forks vibrating in harmonic resonance amplifying back and forth back and forth back and forth building up building up building up building up powerful powerful powerful exponentially.

Thus then by amplifying yourself in this way like two antennas resonating back and forth with one another like two tuning forks resonating back and forth and amping each other up.

You will allow yourself to feel the ease with which you can move through life as life moves through you.

Do you all understand?

All right.

Now, we will, as we said, be sharing a couple of new tools with you this day of your time in this transmission.

We will offer you one experience, one version of this tool now and we will offer you one a little bit later on in this transmission in harmony and in sync with some light and sound vibrations.

But first allow yourselves to simply become very comfortable.

Relax and open up the conduit of your imagination which is the communication conduit to your higher mind.

And in relaxing, allow yourself to image what we are about to say in your mind's eye.

Now imagine that you have a mirror.

It can be large, small, separate from a wall.

It doesn't matter what it is.

As long as you have the ability to look into this mirror, as long as the mirror has some kind of an edge.

And imagine thus then that you are writing the number 11 on a piece of paper or any other medium that you wish.

And you are thus placing this 11 in front of the mirror in such a manner that you can see both the one you've written on the paper and its reflection in the mirror. So that the paper and the reflection together show 11 11.

Thus then once you have done that allow yourself thus then to focus on this 11 11 part part in your reality part in the mirror's reality and allow yourself to feel vibrations.

Whatever the idea of the number of 11 whatever resonance you find works for you in your imagination.

Imbue and infuse the idea of the 11 on the paper with that frequency and allow yourself to also imagine that the reflection in the mirror is also vibrating at that frequency.

As you imagine that the vibratory frequency passes from the paper into the reflection in the mirror, you can also begin to imagine that the mirror itself is starting to vibrate at that frequency.

And as you begin to imagine that the mirror itself is vibrating at that frequency, you can recognize that all it's doing is reflecting to you the frequency that is going on in your reality outside the mirror.

So you have created a kind of vibratory feedback loop.

The vibration in your reality, the vibration of the 11 on the paper transferring to the reflection of the paper in the mirror transferring to the mirror which reflects back to you the same vibration round and round and round and round in a kind of a circular way.

Just allow yourself to sit with this vibration to sit in this vibration for a moment in your imagination and just feel it coursing through you.

A nice gentle vibratory hum.

Now I am going to ask you to think about this mirror to view this mirror in a different way than you normally view the idea of a mirror.

We have talked about the idea of parallel realities.

I am asking you now to do the following thing in your imagination.

Imagine if you are willing to see the mirror not as a reflective service of your reality, but see it as a window into an actual real parallel reality that exists at the same time as yours, in which there is an identical version of you doing exactly the same things you're doing at the same time.

Look through it like a clear piece of glass that is not your reflection.

It's another version of you in another reality looking back at you doing exactly the same things at the same time because these are parallel realities.

Start to let this idea sink in that you're actually looking through a window, through a gateway, through an opening into an actual parallel reality with another version of you that just happens to be doing exactly the same things you are doing simultaneously.

SRH 道

So if you touch your nose, so will that version of you in that reality, but it's not a reflection.

They're just doing the same things at the same time and looking at you as if you are their reflection in their mirror.

But as you begin to allow this concept that you're looking through a window instead of into a mirror to sink in, you can begin doing different things to watch the other you in the other reality that is a true autonomous being in its own reality, his or her reality.

You can begin to do different things.

Touch your nose, touch your ear, touch your eye, make different faces, make different signs and symbols and watch that version of you also doing the same things at the same time because they from their point of view are doing those things in their mind first and just watching you as the parallel reality to them, mimicking the same things at the same time because you are their parallel reality.

You are their reflection.

Allow this idea to become more and more concrete, more real.

Truly, truly, that is another person.

Truly, truly, they just happen to be doing exactly what you're doing at the same time.

Now, as you continue to do this, and as you continue to watch your parallel reality counterpart apparently choosing to do the same things at the same time that you are choosing to do them.

Now, let your imagination create just one small subtle surprising difference.

Maybe you touch your nose and maybe they touch their eye.

Something is just slightly different than it was before.

And you catch it.

You catch the difference and you stop and you feel the shock wave go through you that this is truly a different reality.

That the reflection is no longer identical.

Similar, but not the same.

And now you begin to amplify the idea that this is truly another person in another reality looking at you with what appears to be the same face, but it isn't yours.

It's theirs.

As you begin to experience more and more and more of the idea that they're doing things slightly differently than you, those differences can become more magnified.

The lines, the parallel lines in a sense can begin to widen and diverge.

So that even as you are watching, you are shifting from parallel reality to parallel reality to parallel reality, seeing different parallel realities through that glass, through that window and seeing the subtle differences and then the greater differences that are happening in that world from yours.

And you can even see the look of astonishment and surprise on the face of your parallel counterparts as they recognize that you are no longer their reflection, but a true being in another reality doing something that is similar but different from what they are doing.

And you can begin to truly relate to one another as different aspects of the same soul but in different realities experiencing things somewhat simultaneously somewhat similarly but not the same.

Thus then as you create more and more differences, you can begin to realize that what you can do is send the vibratory energy of the 11 11 gate into this scenario so that you are one of the ones in the 11 and he and she is one of the ones so that you each become the 11.

One of the ones in the 11.

You become each a tuning fork, each a parallel line to each other.

And you resonate to each other in such a manner that as you send these waves back and forth through the window, back and forth to each other, you build up this energy in such a fashion that you can each start to say, each start to imagine the reality you wish to see, you desire to see, you prefer to see yourself in in that reality, in that parallel world.

Build up this image.

Change this image.

Visualize this image of that parallel reality becoming shifting to the ideal reality you prefer.

See all the things happening in that reality through that window that are representative of the reality you prefer to experience and seeing yourself in that reality through the faces of this identical partner you have now created in this simultaneously coexisting parallel version of yourself in that reality who is seeing the same things in you seeing the realities they prefer.

And as you allow yourself to allow the reality on the other side of the glass to become exactly representative, precisely representative of that reality you prefer to experience.

And knowing that at the same time they are doing the same thing for themselves.

Feel the vibration of the 11 11 gateway amplifying, connecting you, locking you together.

Feel it magnify and amplify to a great degree the energy of excitement, the energy, the thrill of seeing that reality being lived, knowing it is real.

And feel the vibrations for that reality in your reality.

Now approaching the glass, approaching the glass, approaching the glass until the glass vibrates, vibrates and resonates.

And then the vibrations from one reality to another cross and you are hit with the frequency of that reality and that version of you is hit with the frequency of their ideal reality on your side of the glass.

And you exchange instantaneously those vibrations, those realities.

Let them sink in.

And as the vibrations once again settle down, harmonize, you go back to the idea of seeing the glass as a mirror, seeing it be a reflection, an actual reflection that is now a reflection of the ideal reality with you in it.

It is truly your reflection, your reality, your vibration harmonized, synchronized, locked as one parallel reality stream.

Even as you know that your counterpart is now experiencing exactly the same thing on their side for their ideal reality vibration.

SRH 道

And you have assisted each other, worked with a parallel reality counterpart to assist each other in strengthening, amplifying, magnifying, and locking in the vibration of the reality you prefer and doing the same for them. And let that vibration now be your vibration.

Let it become familiar as your vibration.

Let the reflection be your reality.

Let it be a reflection of the true you.

And look back down at the 11 reflection and the paper 11.

And know that anytime you wish, as you pick up the paper with the 11 on it and see yourself holding that 11 in the reflection of the mirror that reflects your new reality.

Anytime you wish, you can avail yourself of this permission slip, this tool, this exchange.

Anytime you wish to fine-tune, refine any idea of better harmonization with that reality of your preference, you can always once again use that as the phone number of the parallel reality of your counterpart.

Place it next to the mirror so you can see the 11 11 in the reflection.

And dial the number up once again and know unairringly that your counterpart will always be there on the other side of the glass on the other side of the window because they're doing exactly the same thing at the same time because they're there to help you as you are there to help them.

And this is one way to allow yourself truly to experience the idea of cross-connecting energies between parallel reality selves to aid and assist each other in really truly becoming more and more of who you wish to be, who you prefer to be.

This is one way to truly amplify, magnify, and lock in a relationship with yourself.

A relationship of reflection, a relationship of willingness to be more and more of who you are by being of service to other counterparts and allowing them to become more and more of who they are at the same time.

Take a deep breath in and lock this 11 energy within yourselves.

It is yours to use.

SRH 道

You are in that sense constantly shifting from parallel reality to parallel reality.

You are parallel reality beings.

That is your nature.

You don't have to learn how to do it.

You do it automatically.

You just need to learn to guide it in the direction of your preferential vibration.

It's as simple as that.
