Abstract

In September 2025, we released a long publication forecasting a transposition of embodied consciousness among specialists in the lead up to 2048. In this paper, we explain some of the probable phenomena and timeframes that enable this paradigm shift.

The Harbinger

On 7.1 2025, the interstellar object 3i Atlas was discovered by astronomers in Chile and announced to the world. On 9.25.2025, we released Behind Beehive Island with Lady Snail Goddess – the book contains an Afterword beginning on p. 171, which frames the arrival of the time for transposition to a higher octave of consciousness during the collapse of the status quo. Then, after an anomalous change in speed and trajectory in October 2025, 3i Atlas made its closest fly by to earth 12.19.2025. This event was exactly 171 days after the collective discovery of the object's arrival. Interestingly, in 2014 we published a rigorous calendrical precommitment on p. 171 of the specialist manual Secret of the Shining Toad. This page described the black moon on 12.19.2025 as a prominent celestial beacon marking a profound period of transposition utilizing infinite potential. These synchronicities are established as a matter of fact in the public record.

The collapse of the status quo is undeniably underway as we enter the temporal marker 2026. The synchronous literature indicates that a period of extreme hardships is now imminent. Anything could happen to satisfy this dynamic trend. However, what we can say for specialists is that 2048 represents a mid-point where everything we have known will re-established differently within a new octave of consciousness. And by 2102, a new paradigm of embodiment on earth will be thriving and flowering.

The immediate probabilities represent something quite different. The focus is now upon what will collapse, dissolve, and depart. Thus, 2026-2027 will unfold in ways that wholly reflect this focus. For the specialist, this specter is not something to foreswear. Rather, we herald it as a vital energetic opening that allows us to call down higher order consciousness and exemplify grace upon earth. The channeled guidance -old and new – is that many will depart soon. And much will be lost, at least within as far as legacy consciousness perceives. From the perspective higher-self though, there is no loss. Only transposition. We see it as a release and reshaping of energy. Nothing is discarded. No experience is denied. In this context, indigenous precessional calendars precommit to 2030 as a fundamental marker before which conscious awakening will begin to instantiate writ large.<sup>(BBI, p. 26, Taylor et al., 2025)</sup>

The human psyche is a unified field. It is nuanced only by individual choice-points within nodes. During the changes, nodes who persist in perspectives of self-isolation-desolation will be inundated with resistance. Conversely, nodes who choose to anchor the higher octave of consciousness as an embodied frequency will exemplify ease and grace. Now, ego-centric legacy consciousness utterly rejects this emergent trend. Consequently, the systems of control government has laid upon humanity worldwide are designed to punish the specialist who opts out, who chooses not to participate in fear and extraction from others. What we are saying is that specialists who take up a position at the tip of the spear should be prepared for massive resistance. In this position, anchoring the energy of transposition may initially result in full abandonment by society, family and peers – a potential death sentence for the specialist who is not yet sufficiently autonomous.

Counsel

Let us be clear: for the specialist, transposition is ultimately a choice and is not dependent on external circumstance, per se. Where before, this choice required specific preincarnate foresight and ‘technical’ skills to embody on earth, now a new octave of frequency has emerged that greatly enhances the process. The high-probability of a transposition en masse by 2048 still holds.

Where an embodiment potentially gets lost, especially in frontline energy that runs contra to the collapsing status quo, this represents a de facto disallowance of one’s vast inheritance. Nevertheless, the innate wealth of the soul that is now available below. There are many who might choose to experience to instantiate such a state of fatal-desolation-deprivation, depending on their own agreement. For the specialist who does not, there is no judgment of those who do. All temporal manifestation is to be transposed into its higher octave of expression and seen for what it is right here on earth.

There is a certain reflective capacity that becomes known in adept specialists. This can be empowering for some who experience seeing themselves as the specialist sees them. In this way, some may even be drawn into expressing their own higher truths in the light of such direct transmissions. So, the specialist is not inclined to condemn what transpires as loss/transformation. They respect freewill. And they are aware that egocentric fragments clinging to frequencies of the failed status quo will soon find themselves lifted away from this embodiment, into more appropriate spheres of existence.

The counsel is to maintain coherence with higher order consciousness and let the self-organizing force of nature instantiate what is universally good.
